

- I noticed bruises on my toddler after daycare, and when I asked the staff, their answers didn't add up
- I was walking home from school when a man in a car slowed down and asked me to get in.
- When I am traveling alone in a train or going somewhere alone at night, I feel scared and uncomfortable, thinking about what might happen
- From fast few days, a person is continously staring at me on the office elevator. I am afraid I don't know what to do
- I feel unsafe while I am walking alone
- I noticed something suspicious near my house
- Someone is looking at me in a creepy way on a local bus
- I am constantly having a fear that someone might kidnap me some day.

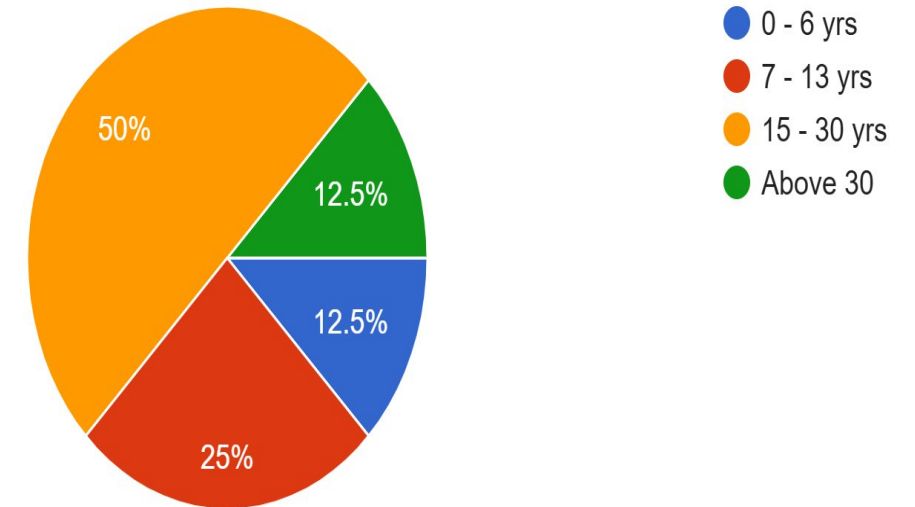

Rate your overall experience with SheGuard-AI

8 responses

Select your age range

8 responses

Superb! Thanks a lot for creating this.

This is amazing, very helpful

The tool is very informative.

Nice tool designed!